HANK FEELEY, artist, maintains a studio and is a part-time resident of Glen Arbor for going on 45 years. The viewer of his work simultaneously enjoys a perspective that is humorous and revealing. It is held in public and private collections, nationally and internationally. He is represented by Aron Packer Gallery, Chicago, and First Street Gallery, New York. The two books are printed digitally.

"My main work is a fusion of art history, literature, and contemporary culture. However, when you live in the "Most Beautiful Place in America," the pull of the wonderful landscape is hard to resist.... some 'fusion' ideas are thrown in to make it more than just a landscape and therefore more interesting, at least to me."
