

Leelanau Trek: One Shoreline, Two Visions

by Ken Scott and Kaye Krapohl

Renowned photographer KEN SCOTT and painter KAYE KRAPOHL trekked the entire 100 miles of the Leelanau Peninsula Lake Michigan Shoreline. They recorded and documented its beauty while walking two miles at a time through all seasons. During the 18-month journey, they experienced the warmth of sandy beaches and colorful skies as well as foreboding clouds and rain, turbulent waves and snow and ice. You name it, Ken and Kay encountered it, now sharing their art and unique visions in this magnificent book.

KEN SCOTT, Leelanau County's quintessential photographer, is self-taught and has become a local icon. His work has been featured in nine regional photography books, three published by Leelanau Press. Ken lives in Suttons Bay and is represented by Two Fish Gallery in Leland and Michigan Artist Gallery in Traverse City.

"I hope my work helps people appreciate what we have in Leelanau."

Ken Scott - Ken's other books for LP are Ice Caves of Leelanau and Why We Preserve.

Leelanau Press

6898 MacFarlane Road, Glen Arbor, MI 49636, 231-334-4395

Barbara@LeelanauPress.com

Leelanau Trek: One Shoreline, Two Visions

Page 2

Painter KAYE KRAPOHL received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Michigan. She has been the recipient of numerous national and regional awards. Kaye loves being immersed in the outdoors and the challenges of working in a variety of medium dictated by the subject, environment and weather. Kaye's work can be seen in Leelanau Trek and at Cedar Creek Interiors.

“My art is about listening, seeing, feeling and preserving a tiny moment in Nature so that we may enjoy it again and again.”

KrapohlFineArts.com

Leelanau Press thanks underwriters Tom and Burma Powell, The Penning Group Advisors in Suttons Bay and Traverse City State Bank whose generosity made Leelanau Trek possible. Also thanking Leslie Spraggins for being project manager.

Award: 2017 Silver IPPY Great Lakes Regional Award

Book Design: Saxon Design - For more information, visit the About page on our website.

Book Details

Published in 2017

ISBN: 978-0-9742068-9-9

$39.95

For information on where to purchase this book, please click here.

Leelanau Press

6898 MacFarlane Road, Glen Arbor, MI 49636, 231-334-4395

Barbara@LeelanauPress.com